

SREE NARAYANA COLLEGE NATTIKA

College Union Report 2024-25

The College Union serves as a central hub where students can gather, interact, and connect, helping build a sense of belonging and community on campus. It organises various activities, events, and clubs, encouraging students to participate in extracurriculars, discover new interests, and develop leadership skills. An active college union named “Haya” engaged in various student support activities in the academic year 2024-25. The College Union was proud to train and groom students for the Calicut University D Zone and Interzone Art Festival. All the participants of the DZone Competitions bagged an A Grade and the participants of Folk Dance Female (Group) and Urdu Essay writing competition won first prize. The Folk Dance Female (Group) became the winners of the Interzone Arts Festival competition with a first place.

1. College Union & Fine Arts Inauguration

Sree Narayana College, Nattika celebrated the College Union and Fine Arts Inauguration, along with Ethnic Day, on 19 November 2024. The college union inauguration for the academic year 2024-25 took place in the college auditorium on Friday, 19 November 2024. The Principal Dr. Jaya P. S delivered the presidential address. Sri Aloshin Joseph, the famous violinist inaugurated the College Union. The college union members named their union 'Haya' in honour of a remarkable personality.

Haya, a 12-year-old Palestinian girl from Gaza City, exemplifies resilience. During the 2008 war, despite personal losses, she selflessly donated her favorite belongings to sheltered children, spreading joy amidst the devastation. Haya's inspiring story motivates all students. The Fine Arts Secretary Ms. Aysha and College Union Chairman Mr. Arun Das extended a warm welcome to the gathering. Vice Chairperson Ms. Amritha proposed the vote of thanks. Following the inauguration, students showcased various cultural programs. The electrifying event was organized by the college union members under the guidance of Staff Advisor Ms. Babitha B, Fine Arts Advisor Mr. Vaisagh K, and Staff Editor Dr. Arya Viswanath. The students thoroughly enjoyed themselves and had a wonderful time. In the evening, from 6 to 8, a DJ program was held, and everyone participated enthusiastically. The program concluded successfully.

2. Children's Day Celebration

On 14th November 2024, the College Union members of Sree Narayana College Nattika, visited SNDP school at Triprayar. The students shared a heartwarming message emphasizing the importance of nurturing creativity and curiosity in every child. The Lower primary children of SNDP School were engaged with entertaining performances by the College Union members. Interactive games were also introduced to the children and they greatly enjoyed playing and winning against their mentors. It was a day full of joy and laughter for the students as well as the Union members of Sree Narayana College Nattika.

3. Christmas Celebration

The Christmas Day celebration was held on December 20, 2024, in the college's open auditorium. The festival, which inspires the spirit of sharing and caring, was marked with enthusiasm and excitement. The college was beautifully decorated, and students and staff were dressed in red and white, adding to the festive atmosphere. The College Union organized a Christmas Carol competition. The Department of Botany won First prize, and the Department of Economics won the second.

Following the competition, the Kairali band set arrived at the college and performed a musical ensemble. The students thoroughly enjoyed the program, which concluded at 4:00 PM.

4. Campus Kala Jadha

Haya College Union in collaboration with Kerala Sastra Sahitya Parishad and National Service Scheme has organized a Campus Kala Jadha at Sree Narayana College Auditorium on 3 February 2025. The members of Kerala Sastra Parishad have performed cultural activities that promoted the scientific temper. The NSS volunteers actively participated in the event which helped them to gain scientific understanding and scientific temper.

5. The College Arts Festival

The College Union Arts Festival was conducted on January 8, 9, and 14, 2025. The competitions for off-stage items were held on January 8th and 9th, 2025, and the on-stage items were held on January 14, 2025.

On January 8, 2025, union officials were assigned duties in three groups. Stage 1 hosted competitions in Malayalam essay, English essay, Tamil essay, English short story, and embroidery. Stage 2 became the venue for Arabic essay, Sanskrit essay, Malayalam short story, Sanskrit, Urdu, Tamil short story and rangoli competitions. Stage 3 held Hindi essay, Urdu essay, Arabic short story, collage, and cartoon competitions. The events began at 10:00 AM and concluded at 4:30 PM. The first day of the Arts Fest ended on a grand note.

The second day of the arts festival was equally successful, with various competitions and events taking place. The union officials were divided into three groups and assigned duties. On the second day, various competitions were organized at three different venues (stages). Events began at 10:00 AM and concluded at 4:00 PM. Stage 2, held in the Physics Class, featured competitions in watercolor, oil painting, pencil drawing, and quiz. Stage 3, in the Banquet Hall, hosted Malayalam versification, Urdu/Sanskrit/Tamil versification, Hindi versification, poster making, and Malayalam/Hindi/Sanskrit recitation competitions. Stage 4, in the Visitors' Lounge, witnessed competitions in Arabic versification, English versification, English recitation, Malayalam speech, and English speech. Day 2 ended on a positive note.

When the results of the two-day competition were announced, the joint team of the Departments of Economics, Botany, and B Voc emerged in the leading positions with 120 points.

On the third day of Kalothsavam (January 14, 2025), the on-stage events commenced with an inauguration ceremony at 9:30 AM. The competitions commenced at 10:30 AM, featuring various events such as Mohiniyattam, Kuchipudi, Bharatanatyam, Naadan Paattu, Kerala Nadanam, group dance, Oppana, skit, mime, Thiruvathira, Vattapaattu, Mappilapaattu, classical music, Karnatic music, light music, mimicry, mono act, Deshabhakthi Ganam, Sangha Ganam, and Vanchipaatu. Participating students reported to the registration office, collected their chest numbers, and performed for the competitions. Winners were announced at the end of each event.

The overall scores for the three-day event were announced at 5:30 PM. The Economics, Botany, and B.Voc departments emerged as the winners with 149 marks, followed closely by the Malayalam, Statistics, and Mathematics departments. After announcing the results, Principal Dr. Jaya P. S. distributed the prizes. The program, which began at 9:30 AM, concluded at 5:30 PM, marking the end of a successful competition. The three-day event concluded successfully, with all activities being conducted in a highly organized and efficient manner.

7. A Day with Love Birds – Anti Narcotic Campaign

On Monday, 20th January 2025, at 1:30 PM, an inspiring programme titled “A Day with Love Birds” was conducted as part of an anti-narcotic awareness campaign. The event was a collaborative initiative by the students of Chaitanya Special School, Kunnamkulam, Haya College Union and the National Service Scheme (NSS) units 51 and 135 of Sree Narayana College, Nattika. The students of Chaitanya Special School performed a flash mob, initiating awareness about the Anti-Narcotic messages to the society. The programme aimed to highlight the dangers of drug abuse and the importance of fostering a healthy, addiction-free society. The College Union members and NSS volunteers entertained their guests with cultural programmes. The students of Chaitanya Special School played a central role in spreading this crucial message, showcasing their creativity and determination. The event reflected the collective effort of students and volunteers to combat the menace of substance abuse and promote a message of hope and positivity.

11. International Women's Day Celebration – Seminar on Menstruation and Mental Health

The College Union of Sree Narayana College, Nattika, organised a significant event on March 8, 2025, to commemorate International Women's Day. The event commenced with an inaugural address by the College Principal, Dr. Jaya P S, who emphasized the importance of gender equality and the empowerment of women in all spheres of life. A key segment of the event was an awareness class conducted by Ms. Dona Davis, the college psychologist. Ms. Davis provided comprehensive information on menstrual health, addressing common myths and promoting a healthy understanding of menstrual hygiene and its impact on overall well-being. The session also delved into the mental health challenges faced by women, discussing coping mechanisms, the importance of seeking help, and fostering a supportive environment for mental well-being. The event witnessed active participation from students, who engaged in discussions and raised pertinent questions, reflecting their keen interest in the topics presented. The interactive nature of the session facilitated a deeper understanding and encouraged open dialogue on subjects often considered taboo.

12. Iftaar Party – Eid -Ul- Fitr Celebration

As part of fostering communal harmony and cultural celebration, Sree Narayana College, Nattika organized a warm and inclusive Iftar Party on the college campus in connection with Eid-ul-Fitr. The Iftar was held in the college courtyard, with students and faculty from various religious backgrounds participating enthusiastically. The event began in the evening, with arrangements made for breaking the fast at sunset. Traditional dishes and refreshments were served, creating a festive and welcoming atmosphere. In the spirit of Eid, sweets were distributed among all students and staff, symbolizing the message of love, sharing, and celebration. This act of kindness and generosity was appreciated by all, adding sweetness to the cultural gathering. Students from all communities actively took part in organizing the event. Their enthusiastic involvement highlighted the vibrant and diverse spirit of the campus, and their efforts ensured that the celebration was both meaningful and memorable.

The background is a dark blue night sky filled with numerous small, glowing yellow stars. Several strings of warm white LED lights are draped across the top half of the image. Four glowing yellow lanterns are suspended from the strings, adding a cozy, festive atmosphere.
